

Lower School Meet & Greet August 12, 2024

Important information for all Lower School parents

Please note that the time-frame you are asked to visit your child's classroom will be sent to your child individually along with a letter from their new teacher in early August. Attending your designated time period is appreciated due to space limitations.